

ENGLISH FOR LAW

Our comprehensive and practical ONE-TO-ONE ENGLISH FOR LAW COURSE is part of our professional programme and ideal for those who require this specific type of professional course. Your tutor will have legal qualifications and many years of experience in the practice of law which is absolutely essential for a successful course. Your one-to-one lessons will focus particularly on the language skills and legal aspects that are important for you. This will ensure rapid and meaningful progress in achieving your objectives and permitting you to communicate in a more effective manner.

These courses are suitable for legal practitioners who need to improve their legal English, other professionals who require knowledge of Legal English and students preparing for a career in Law, university degrees in Law or Criminology, degrees in other fields with law as a component and examinations.

Please note that our sister company English for Law (<http://www.lawwithenglish.com>) offers professional courses suitable for busy legal practitioners who require in-depth knowledge of practice and procedure in addition to English language tuition. This may be of interest to lawyers, interpreters, translators and those beginning a new career in law.

We can offer courses covering (but not limited to) such areas as English for:

Advocacy	Family and Divorce Law
Arbitration	General Practice of Law
Company Law	Human Rights Law
Commercial Law	Insurance Law
Competition Law	Intellectual Property
Comparative Law	International Law
Contract Law, including Sale of Goods	Litigation
Criminal Law	Media Law
Defamation Law	Negotiable Instruments
English for Drafting Documents	Legal Procedure
English for Law Students	Real Property
Employment Law	Tort Law

Frequently, we are asked for courses that focus on aspects of legal writing, drafting of contractual documents, meeting, greeting, advising and dealing with clients, aspects of court advocacy, communicating and explaining legal issues with English speaking colleagues, negotiating and making presentations to name a few. Every course is unique and focused on your individual needs and objectives.

One particular aspect of our courses relates to the difficulties that exist in explaining the differences in laws and practice and procedure between Common Law jurisdictions and Codified Law systems of non-English speaking jurisdictions. This can be quite difficult for lawyers to do and even more difficult for clients to fully understand. Our courses take this difficulty into account so that, for example, an Italian lawyer can focus on properly explaining the effect of an Italian statute to an English speaking colleague using language used and understood by English speaking lawyers. Of course we also cover normal language and terms which are more easily understood by clients who need clear and concise explanations.

Effective communication is a key element of our courses with correct and good use of English as a priority. The four core skills - speaking, listening, writing and reading - are practised together with appropriate vocabulary and phrase building, pronunciation and correct use of grammar as needed. Your needs and objectives are clearly identified before and at course commencement and language weaknesses addressed in a professional and helpful manner.

If you would like to enrol for our one-to-one Legal English course or need further information please contact us and provide as much information as possible advising the areas you would like to study. We will be pleased to design a course that meets your exact needs. Every course is unique and we have great experience in presenting Legal English courses for many years with great feedback.

We will be pleased to discuss any aspect with you prior to course booking so that you have all the information you need. It may also be possible to put you in contact with some of our past students who have taken legal PERSONALISED COURSE: We appreciate that, as a professional, your time is limited and you have very specific requirements. For this reason a one-to-one English course with a qualified and experienced tutor is the ideal solution ensuring that your specific language needs are met in an efficient but thoroughly enjoyable manner. Lessons are relevant, personalised and centred around you - with you and only you in mind!

Following a needs analysis your tutor will design a course that focuses on your particular language needs. This course will cover many areas including pronunciation, sentence/word stress, grammar, vocabulary as well as the four skills - speaking, listening, reading and writing. Error identification and correction, monitoring and reduction of repetitive errors are always a priority and are a very important component of our courses.

Your tutor will carefully discuss your needs with you in the first lesson and design your course based on these needs and, of course, your wishes! You are encouraged to bring work related materials with you - work documents, brochures, previous and current presentations, correspondence etc. - and these can be incorporated into your course where appropriate. Your continuing language needs are constantly monitored and the course focus can be altered to take these into account. Flexibility is important and of course more easily practised in the context of a one-to-one course!

As with all our courses, your specific needs will be identified and prioritised in the first lesson and the course will be designed to meet these needs. Our one-to-one method allows for continuous monitoring of progress and meeting evolving language needs so you can rest assured that your tutor will be flexible to ensure your course is relevant to your needs.

ADVICE: Our ENGLISH FOR LAW courses are specialised and we advise that you take a course of 15/20 hours per week and ideally for two weeks or more if possible. This is our advice and of course you should feel free to choose a schedule that suits you.
